Rock County Sheriff's Office will participate in the fifth annual National Coffee with a Cop Day on Wednesday, October 5, 2022. Sheriff's Office staff will converse with community members over coffee at two area restaurants. Coffee with a Cop is a community engagement program that provides opportunities for community members to talk with local law enforcement officers in a casual setting and promotes open communication.

The Sheriff's Office teamed up with the Edgerton Police Department to host a Coffee with a Cop event at Cafe on Main, located at 1102 North Main Street in Edgerton. Edgerton Police Chief Robert Kowalski and Rock County Sheriff's Office Captain Curt Fell will be available to speak with community members from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. on October 5, 2022.

The Sheriff's Office will also hold a Coffee with a Cop event at Bessie's Diner, located inside the Southern Wisconsin Regional Airport, 1716 West Airport Road, Janesville. Chief Deputy Craig Strouse and Sergeant Christopher Krahn will be available to chat with community members from 7:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. on October 5, 2022.

The mission of Coffee with a Cop is to break down the barriers between cops and the citizens they serve by giving community members time to ask questions, voice concerns, and get to know local cops. We encourage the community to come out to either location.
