

February 2023: Last Month for Extra FoodShare Benefits

Regular FoodShare Benefits Continue

What do I need to know?

During the COVID-19 pandemic, a federal program let us give you extra FoodShare benefits in addition to your regular amount. Now, due to recent changes to federal law, the extra amounts are ending. February 2023 is the last scheduled month you will get extra benefits. Qualifying families will continue to get their regular FoodShare amounts.

What if I need more help with food?

Find local resources. Call 211 or 877-947-2211 to locate resources near you. You can also find other options at dhs.wi.gov/nutrition/index.htm.

Check other state benefit programs. Log in to your ACCESS account at access.wi.gov and click "See if you can get help." Then, answer a few questions to see if there are other state programs to help you.

Learn about medical expense deductions. Medical deductions may be available to those who are 60 or older, blind, or have a disability, and pay medical expenses out-of-pocket. For details, refer to our medical expense guide at dhs.wi.gov/publications/p03315b.pdf.
