The State of Wisconsin is an equal opportunity service provider. This letter contains information that affects your benefits. If you need this material in a different format because of a disability or if you need this letter translated or explained in your own language, please call 1-888-947-6583. These services are free.

our records show that you had a change in your life that may change your health care benefits. For example, you may have turned 65 years old or started getting Medicare. We need more information from you to find out if you can still get health care benefits. Please let us know if you or your spouse have any assets by 11/02/2021. To provide this information, use the contact information at the top of this letter to call your agency, fax the information, send the information by mail, or go online at access.wi.gov.

Please let us know about assets you or your spouse own or jointly own with another person. We do not need to know about personal and household items (for example, clothing, televisions, furniture, and appliances). Assets can be cash, property, or other holdings that can be converted to cash. The following are examples of assets:

- Cash, checking or savings accounts, Direct Express card, prepaid debit cards, certificates of deposit (CDs), trust funds, stocks, retirement accounts, Keogh plans, annuities, or U.S. savings bonds
- Life insurance, burial insurance, burial trust, burial spaces, or other burial assets
- Automobile, motorcycle, moped, camper, recreational vehicle, boat, snowmobile, farm tractor, or other motor vehicles
- House, land, rental property, mobile home, timeshare, life estate, land contracts, or promissory notes
- Personal property of great value such as collectibles and gems/jewelry purchased as an investment

If you do not provide this information by 11/02/2021, you may lose your health care benefits. We may ask for proof of some of your assets later. If you provide proof now, it may take less time to find out if you can still get health care benefits. Examples of proof include a copy of your bank
